Helpful Hints for Search:

- A party or attorney might have been marked inactive on a case, however you can still search on the inactive party's name.
- Inactive parties will still display in the Case Details, however there will be an "end" date in the Expiration Date field for that party.
- Addresses for Parties: The addresses displayed may be the address associated to the party at the time the case was filed or may reflect a more current address if the party provided the court with a current address.
